CHECK IN PROCEDURES

1. Check in to let us know you arrived and then just go find an empty bunk.
2. You will need to purchase fishing license and trout stamps at the Park Office.

ITEMS NEEDED

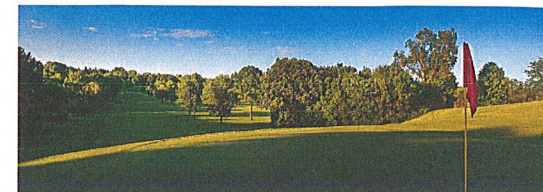

Each camper must provide his own sheets, blankets, pillows, washcloths, towels, bath soap, toothpaste and other personal items. Fans are another recommended item; however, sometimes it gets cool in the evenings. Bible, note pads and pen will be needed for the evening rallies.

SPECIAL NOTICE

To all schedule ignoring, rule breaking, late arriving fishermen. Cut off for serving brunch is 9:30, for dinner it's 7:30. Just like the rapture, if you're not prepared when the bell sounds...you just flat missed it. Be Ye Also Ready.

Also if you plan on leaving before breakfast on Saturday then please check the appropriate box.

The Roaring River Men's retreat is a great time for fellowship, fishing, relaxing and getting closer to God. I think of all of the people that has ever been, most of them would highly recommend this trip. Roaring River State Park is in such a beautiful setting and hopefully the weather will be nice as we should have warm days and cool nights.

Make plans to attend and I am sure that you will return changed.

Come prepared to receive.
